

—Principle Eight—

Government's job is to maintain order in society by commending those who do right and punishing those who do wrong. Nowhere in Scripture do we see any indication that it is government's job to meet people's needs.
(See Rom. 13:1–7; 1 Pet. 2:13–17; 1 Tim. 2:1–2.)