

Without the Law, Love Is Meaningless, and Liberty Cannot Exist

<https://wordfoundations.com/law-love-liberty/> ~ source for items 1-6: Enemies Within the Church

1. You can't have justice without God's law.
2. Social justice crusaders are replacing God's law with subjective feelings rather than objective facts, or absolute truth.
3. Love and law are two sides of the same coin.
4. Church leaders, churches, and many, many Christians today no longer understand the biblical definition of love.
5. You have to have the Ten Commandments to really understand love.
6. Social justice crusaders in the church are gutting words of their biblical meanings and redefining them.
7. You can't have authentic freedom and liberty without a reverence for God's law and a respect for absolute truth.
8. God's signature attribute is not love. It is holiness, something we cannot understand without God's law.